Our tasting journeys offer three whiskies in 2cl serves. The idea being that each should take you on a unique journey through the given region. We are more than happy to make changes and price accordingly, or alternatively create journeys to order

Introduction to Scotch

We start this journey deep in the Scottish Highlands with the light, fruity and extremely approachable Clynelish 14yr. Heading south we arrive at the GlenDronach distillery for one of the ultimate Scotch sherry bombs in the phenomenal GlenDronach 15yr Revival. No introduction to Scotch could ever be complete without a journey west to Islay; Caol Ila 12yr is a fantastic example of light yet complex smoke.

Bring back the blends

Campbeltown Loch 21yr from the mighty Springbank distillery kicks off this intriguing journey. Next is a fantastic example of modern blended whisky, Compass Box have really helped put blends back on the map and their Spice Tree is no exception to the rule. We finish with a big punchy batch strength blend. Wemyss Spice King certainly lives up to its name.

Irish

To start our Irish journey Redbreast 21yr is an incredible example of pot still whiskey and a must on anyone's bucket list. To the Irish capital next, Teeling Brabazon now distilling in the heart of Dublin, drawn from six different sherry casks for a full-bodied, richer finish. Last on our tour is Connemara Peated Single Malt. This is a lovely expression of a style that is not often found in Irish whiskey.

Speyside

If sherry finishes are your thing you are in for a treat. Glenfarclas 21yr kicks the journey off with one off the ultimate after dinner whiskies. Next up is Aberlour 18yr, rich, oily and very moreish. We finish this journey with our choice from the infamous Scottish Malt Whisky Society. We are lucky enough to be one of the only bars in town to have access to this wonderful juice. Feel free to ask staff for more details.

The All American Dream

We head stateside to Kentucky with three of our very favorite bourbons. Elijah Craig 12yr kicks off the party with a lovely expression from the much celebrated Heaven Hill distillery. Then it is over to Four Roses for their delicious Small batch 2017 limited edition. To finish your journey (and probably your night) we have Buffalo Trace's Staggy Jr. Each bottle varies in ABV but is always north of 60% and jam-packed with flavour.

Campbeltown

Although the Campbeltown region only has three distilleries its quality is unquestionable. We begin with the lesser-known Killkerran W.I.P 2nd Edition from the Glengyle distillery, a wonderfully balanced dram. Next up is another amazing limited edition from Springbank and its Local Barley 10yr. Staying with Springbank we add some peat into the equation with Longrow 11yr Cabernet Franc finish.

My peat is bigger than yours

Smoke heads rejoice! We have put together a wonderful hat-trick of whiskies to blow your taste buds to pieces. Port Askaig 15yr Oloroso breaks us in gently with a great combo of sweat and peat. Moving up on the PPM scale we have one of the smokiest blends known to man. Compass Box No Name is a bit of a rock star blend containing Ardbeg 15yr, Caol Ila and a little Clynleish. We close this peat project with Ardbeg Kelpie, a limited edition from one of the kings of smoke.

The Viking Trail

We start our Viking trail in the north of Sweden with Box Dalvve. Light, approachable and very tasty. Then its down to the Danish country side and a really interesting example of Danish whisky from Thy. To complete our Viking trail we jump in our long boat and head over to the Isle of Orkney to sample our choice from Highland Park's well-revered "Valhalla" range.

Asia

Asia is no slouch when it comes to making whisky. We start this rock star line-up with the multi-award winning Nikka 17yr Taketsuru. A tough act to follow but we feel that Kavalan's "Vhino Barrique" previous winner of the "world best single malt" at the "World Whiskies Awards" should do the trick. We close this journey with a punchy peaty number from Ichiro's wonderful Chichibu distillery. The 2016 edition really is something special.

Rest in Peace

For our R.I.P journey we start off with a wonderful 1970's bottling of Gilbey's Spey Royal. This is a fantastic way to show how blends have evolved over the recent decades. Next we have a real crowd pleaser in Rosebank Flora & Fauna. Mothballed in 1993. The ultimate representation of a Lowland whisky, the Flora & Fauna is all hard fruit and floral sweetness. Then, where else could we end but on Islay with Port Ellen. This absolute behemoth in the world of Scotch collectors, writers, and most importantly drinkers is everything you could possibly hope for, and then some. We have managed to get our hands on a bottle of the 32 Year old (15th Release). All very limited bottles.
