Introduction to Scotch

We start our journey deep in the Scottish Highlands at the fabled Clynelish Distillery with their eponymous 14yr. We then head South to Speyside for the luscious sherry bomb that is Benromach 15yr. No introduction to Scotch could ever be complete without a trip west to Islay; Caol Ila 12yr is an incredible example of light yet complex smoke

Price 200 dkk

Wood Work

In this journey we explore the highly skilled craft of the coopers and the effect the barrels ultimately have on the finished product. We start off with a fruity and tropical number, the Balvenie 14 Caribbean Cask, matured in Caribbean Rum casks. Moving on to something more refined and elegant, with the Teeling Revival Calvados Cask. The fresh orchard fruit notes inherent in Irish malts are attractively amplified by the Calvados casks. Finishing with something rich and sweet, the Loch Lomond Madeira Finish, a malty yet succulent dessert dram

Irish

We begin our Irish journey in the nation's capital, at the first new distillery in Dublin for over 125 years. Teeling Single Grain is a stunning example of the innovation happening in Irish distilling and a brilliant expression of what grain whiskey is when done right. Next, we move on to the uniquely Irish style of Pure Pot Still whiskey with the much-acclaimed Green Spot Château Léoville Barton. We finish our tour of the Emerald Isle with Redbreast 21yr, an incredible expression of Pure Pot Still whiskey and a must on anyone's bucket list

Speyside

Geographically, Speyside is a region within the Highlands of Scotland. Distinguished for its high concentration of distilleries. Broadly speaking, Speyside whiskies can be classified as falling into one of two camps. We start off at one end of the spectrum, with the light, grassy and fresh BenRiach 10yr. Moving over to the other side of the spectrum with Glenfarclas 21. The ultimate rich and round after dinner dram. And finishing off with the Rolls Royce of single malt whisky, heavily sherried, very structured and incredibly complex, Macallan 18

The All American Dream

We head stateside to Kentucky with three of our favourite bourbons. Elijah Craig 12yr kicks off the party with a lovely expression from the much-celebrated Heaven Hill distillery. Then it is over to Four Roses for their delicious Small Batch 2017 limited edition. To finish your journey (and quite possibly your night) we have Buffalo Trace's Stagg Jr. Each batch of the Stagg Jr varies in ABV but is always north of 60% and jam packed with flavour

Campbeltown

Although the Campbeltown region only has three distilleries its quality and status in the whisky world is unquestionable. We begin with the lesser known Killkerran W.I.P 2nd Edition from the Glengyle distillery, a wonderfully balanced dram. Next up is a very limited edition from Springbank, the much sought-after Local Barley 10yr. Staying with Springbank we add some peat to the equation with the Longrow Red 11yr Cabernet Franc finish

We start our Viking trail in the north of Sweden with Box Dálvve. Light, approachable and very tasty. Then it's down to the Danish country side and a really interesting example of Danish whisky from Thy. To complete our journey, we hop in our long boats and head over to the Orkney Islands to sample our choice from Highland Park's well-revered "Valhalla" range

Asia

Asia is no slouch when it comes to making whisky. We start this rock star line-up with the multi-award-winning Nikka 17yr Taketsuru. A tough act to follow but we feel that Kavalan's "Vhino Barrique" previous winner of the "world best single malt" at the "World Whiskies Awards" should do the trick. We close this journey with a punchy, peaty number from Ichiro's wonderful Chichibu distillery. The 2016 edition really is something special

Rest in Peace

For our R.I.P journey we start off with a wonderful 1970's bottling of Gilbey's Spey Royal. This is a fantastic way to show how blends have evolved over the recent decades. Next we have a real crowd pleaser in Rosebank Flora & Fauna. Mothballed in 1993. The ultimate representation of a Lowland whisky, the Flora & Fauna is all hard fruit and floral sweetness. Then, where else could we end but on Islay with Port Ellen. This absolute behemoth in the world of Scotch collectors, writers, and most importantly drinkers is everything you could possibly hope for, and then some. We have managed to get our hands on a bottle of the 32 Year old (15th Release). All very limited bottles.
