We then journey onwards to the cradle of Japanese whisky. The place where it all began back in 1923, the Yamazaki distillery, as we sample this incredible and very sought after 12yr.

Bucket List

Buckle up for a hat-trick of some of the most incredible and rare whiskies to grace our shores.

We begin the proceedings in the Lowlands of Scotland with Rosebank 30yr. The distillery was mothballed in 1993, although it is due to re-open later this year its old bottlings have become something of folklore among whisky geeks.

Now to the Far East and the much fabled Nikka Taketsuru 21yr a splendid example of Japanese whisky at its finest.

Our final destination is on the Isle of Islay just off the west coast of Scotland. Lagavulin hardly needs any introduction but the ultra rare 26yr release will certainly leave an impression.
